INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the dark future of Earth. The last hope of mankind rests in the hands of an elite force of cyborgs code named: Run Sabers. Created with superior strength, powers and abilities, these warriors are sent against impossible odds to stop a warped scientist from fouling the entire planet.

Join Allen the Thunder Saber and Sheena the Ice Saber on their world wide quest to stop the super-mutant armies and their evil master, Dr. Bruford. Armed with indestructible blades, our heroes delve into a world infested with mutated monstrosities.

Either try your luck at a solo mission, or team up with a friend to slice and dice the mad doctor's army of darkness in all-out, 2-player action! Collect power-ups, health kits and more as you battle your way through five stages and make your way to Bruford's hidden fortress. And remember, never drop your guard!

In the year 2998, the earth's atmosphere had become so contaminated with toxic pollution that the earth was on the verge of a complete ecological breakdown. Mankind's only hope for recovery was a last resort new technology developed by Dr. Gordon Buford known as the "The Earth Renaissance Project", this revolutionary program would clean up the earth's surface and harness the universal energy source: Fusion.

To convert to fusion energy, the earth's atmosphere would have to be subjected to lethal amounts of radioactive energy. To survive this period, mankind would have to leave the planet and put life on earth in a one year cold sleep.

But something went terribly wrong. In an effort to gain total control of the earth, Dr. Buford secretly stayed behind and subjected himself to massive amounts of radiation. His genetic makeup was completely changed, he mutated himself into a powerful and evil being, completely erasing all signs of humanity. The new "Dr. Buford" began cloning mutants to build an army to aid in fulfilling his evil plans.

The world's greatest scientists studied with horror the scanner pictures which were placed to monitor earth's progress. Conventional weaponry was deemed useless against Buford and his army of mutant clones. Project Run Saber was soon commenced, the purpose: to create cyborg warriors with spectacular weaponry and abilities that would infiltrate Buford's installations and take back the earth.

Three prototypes were developed and sent to earth. Unfortunately, Kurtz (Flair Saber), had a defective parasite defense apparatus and was captured by Buford to be used against the rest of the Run Saber Force. Only two remain: Allen (Thunder Saber) and Sheena (Ice Saber). The future of mankind lays in their hands! Good luck Run Saber warriors.

Game Summary

Run Saber is a five stage action game that uses swords and special attack weapons to destroy enemies in solo or tandem play. Listed below are important factors about the game that will allow you to enjoy this adventure to its fullest!

Special Attack Weapon: All action on the screen freezes as you detonate this device. All enemy characters that are on the screen when you use this item take damage. Player one's Special Attack Weapon is the "Thunder Dragon" and Player two's Special Attack Weapon is the "Ice Cyclone". The animations for these effects differ, but the results are similar. Each player starts the game with 2 Special Attack Weapons.

Status Bar: Information about the Run Sabers appears at the top of the screen in the status bar. The information shown is: the number of players lives remaining, the number of Special Attack Weapons remaining, the Hit Point (HP) Life Gauge, the player's score and the Progress Display.

The Life Gauge starts with 3 HP's. It decreases by one every time you are hit by an enemy character. You can increase the Life Gauge (a maximum of 8 HP's) by collecting items capsules.

The Progress Display assists you as you travel through the levels. Since you can go in nearly every direction, this will come in handy to keep you from getting lost. A direction arrow is the most commonly found message; use it to guide your actions. Other messages include:

ALERT: This flashes whenever a Boss character is near. It continues to flash this message until you defeat the Boss.

GO DOWN! When this appears, try to move down as quickly as possible.

GO UP! When this appears, press the jump button and move up as quickly as possible.

Continues: In the 1-player mode, if you lose all of your lives you may continue from where you ended by selecting Continue. You can only continue three times. This is the same for the 2-player mode.

Second Player Join-in: If the game is begun with only one player, a second player may join in by pressing the Start button on Controller #2. This action, however, counts as one continue and decreases the continues. Thus, if the number of continues is zero, a second player cannot join in.

Character Color Change: If the Select Button is pressed during Pause, you may change the color of your character. There are a total of eight colors to choose from. Cancel the Pause to continue your game.
